Marine Social Science Network Newsletter April 2019

Welcome to the MarSocSci newsletter!

We have a bumper edition this week, with links to forthcoming conferences, events and recent publications.

Through our emails and newsletters we'll keep you updated with ongoing events, case studies, and opportunities from all over the world. If you want to contribute to the next newsletter, or have anything you would like us to promote through the newsletter, contact us on info@marsocsci.net or through @MarSocSci.

Case Study

Lobsters: A case study in community management

Here we delve into local lobster fisheries, the Marine Protected Area Governance \(MPAG\) project, and how its founder, Peter Jones, is helping to create effective, sustainable interactions between people and the ocean.

Call for Participants

Perspectives on marine policy and management in the UK: An online survey

An online survey is being conducted to collect views on marine policy and management practice in the UK – aimed at marine stakeholders, academics and policy-makers. The survey will feed into PhD research being carried out by a student at the University of Edinburgh. The survey will take approximately 30 to 40 minutes and all completed submissions will be entered in to draw to win 1 of 2 £100 prizes.
